

SRS CALF SCRAMBLE PROGRAM

GENERAL RULES

- A. The general rules shall be as follows:
1. The contestant for the current year may not have won a heifer in a previous year. A contestant that did not win in a previous CS event may participate again.
 2. The heifer purchased by the winner shall have been calved the year of purchase. The participant must have suitable facilities for caring and developing the animal of their choice.
 3. Participants may have to add more money to obtain the animal of their choice, as well as purchase feed and veterinary supplies required to care for the animal.
 4. The participant must have a genuine desire and assume the responsibility of owning and showing a purebred heifer.
 5. The participant must remain active in and under the leadership of their current Idaho 4-H or FFA chapter.
 6. The participant shall maintain all of the records, as required by their 4-H or FFA chapter and submit monthly reports to the SRS office and their calf sponsor who made possible the purchase of the animal. The SRS Calf Scramble Committee will provide a report form.
 7. Youths, ages 14, 15, & 16 and not beyond beginning their senior year of high school, are eligible to compete.
 8. We encourage participant to show their heifer at a county fair or any other livestock show during the year.
 9. The participant will maintain satisfactory grades and attendance at their school during the school year, and follow the rules of their respective 4-H or FFA Chapter.
 10. The participant will be required to return, with their heifer, to the Idaho Center during next years Rodeo Week the Calf Scramble Heifer Show and final meeting with the Calf Scramble Committee.
 11. The SRS Calf Scramble Committee shall approve the sale or placement of the participant's heifer following the one-year commitment.
 12. Any sale or transfer of a heifer during the winner's first year of ownership of his/her heifer is subject to the approval of the Calf Scramble Committee and return of the $1,000.00 original purchase price to the Snake River Stampede.